

Bob Jones University and the School of Education and Human Services is regionally accredited through the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC)

Each of our education programs are approved by the South Carolina State Board of Education using the Standards of their respective Specialized Professional Associations.

The School of Education and Human Services underwent an accreditation review by the South Carolina Department of Education using the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) standards in 2020 and was awarded accreditation for all initial programs. The School of Education and Human Services Division of Teacher Education is scheduled for its next accreditation review in 2027.

Current programs leading to licensure in South Carolina:

- BS Early Childhood Education Program Approved by SCDE
- BS Elementary Education Program Approved by SCDE
- BS Middle School Education (Language Arts, Mathematics, Science, Social Studies) Program Approved by SCDE
- BS English Education Program Approved by SCDE
- BS Mathematics Education Program Approved by SCDE
- BME Music Education (Choral, Instrumental) Program Approved by SCDE
- BS Science Education (Biology, Composite) Program Approved by SCDE
- BS Social Studies Education Program Approved by SCDE
- BS Spanish Education Program Approved by SCDE
- BS Special Education Program Approved by SCDE

Program-completing graduates who meet specific requirements are eligible to apply for appropriate teacher certification through the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI).

Completers of any of our teacher education programs are also awarded Professional Certification through the American Association of Christian Schools.