

MAJOR CHOSEN: INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

I. A BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE MAJOR

The International Studies major prepares Christian young people for careers in international politics, commerce, arts, science, and education. It is built around a core of history and social studies courses supplemented with international business and modern language courses.

II. COURSE HIGHLIGHTS

Here are core courses you will especially enjoy:

Fundamentals of Geography In this course you will learn about world regions and how man relates to the physical world in which he lives.

Cultural Anthropology This course focuses on the components of culture and the impact of culture on human behavior. It also looks at the problems of cross cultural communication and contact.

International Marketing This class examines legal, economic, and social factors influencing marketing abroad using special projects and case studies.

III. A TYPICAL YEARLY COURSE SEQUENCE

This is a suggested program of study for you. Other refinements to your program can be made when you consult your faculty advisor at the time of your enrollment.

IV. FACILITIES, EQUIPMENT, AND OPPORTUNITIES

As an International Studies major, you will have the opportunity to participate in one of the university's summer mission teams or summer study tours which will provide invaluable experience in understanding and operating in another culture.

Completely equipped computer laboratories are available for your use. There are many academic computer labs conveniently located all over campus. They consist of various types of PCs, Apple PowerMacs, and laser printers and are all interconnected via a Novell computer network.

Four computer laboratories are maintained for the use of business students. These laboratories are equipped with 90 IBM-compatible computers, 5 laser printers, 12 transcribers, and 1 scanner.

Chapel is a central feature of Bob Jones University. This 35-minute service is held every morning, Monday through Thursday. These services are a source of great inspiration to students. Four days a week the Chapel message is brought by the President or by selected speakers. Each Friday the Chapel period is devoted to the meetings of various literary societies.

Davis Field House, with over 87,000 square feet and seating for 3,000 people, contains 4 full-sized courts; auxiliary courts; indoor and outdoor tracks; swimming pool; café; and a fitness center with fully-equipped exercise room, aerobic room, sauna, and whirlpool.

The Mack Library, with 90,000 square feet of floor space and seating for over 1,300 students, gives you access to 294,000 volumes, 1,100 current periodical subscriptions, and more than 17,000 music, speech, and language recordings. Mack Library offers access to over 65 electronic databases on the library web site. An interlibrary loan program is available through OCLC, a national database, for books not held in our library. Other prominent features include the Jerusalem Chamber, a replica of the room in Westminster Abbey in London in which work was done on the 1611 King James Bible, and the University Archives Room which displays materials about the Founder and history of the University.

If you are planning to live on campus, you will be glad to know that all of our residence halls are air-conditioned, carpeted, and telephone-equipped. You are able to make long-distance calls directly from your room and have them automatically placed on your school bill. Computer network connectivity is available in all residence halls, as well.

Classrooms are also air-conditioned. Awnings over the sidewalks keep you dry when it is raining. The Dining Common is one of the ten largest in the country, and the Snack Shop and Bookstore in the Student Center carry just about anything you'll need.

You will find that the finest Christian young people in the country are your fellow students, and without trying too hard, you may end up making a life-long friend!
