

MAJOR CHOSEN: CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP

I. A BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE MAJOR

This major leads to an Associate of Applied Arts degree and prepares a layman to serve the Lord as a youth sponsor, Sunday school teacher, superintendent, deacon, or in another ministry of a local church. Practical classroom instruction and direct involvement in Christian service provide varied areas of training.

II. COURSE HIGHLIGHTS

Here are some of the courses you will especially enjoy:

Lay Leadership in the Church This course combines study of the Scriptural data regarding qualifications for church officers with practical insight into how to do the work of the ministry. The ministry of Sunday school teachers, superintendents, deacons, ushers, youth sponsors, etc., will be discussed.

First Corinthians This course gives an in-depth study of Paul's instructions concerning the moral and doctrinal problems of the Corinthian church, the causes of church divisions, and the questions about marriage and divorce. In addition, you will consider the guidelines given in this book concerning Christian liberty, the Lord's Supper, and the gifts of the Spirit.

Church Educational Ministries This course examines the organization and administration of two major outreaches of the local church: the Sunday school and the Christian camp.

III. A TYPICAL YEARLY COURSE SEQUENCE

This is a suggested program of study for you. Other refinements to your program can be made when you consult your faculty advisor at the time of your enrollment.

You will notice that some courses are listed as electives. These electives give you the opportunity to tailor your program by selecting courses you would like to take for your own personal enjoyment.

After completing the Associate of Applied Arts degree in Christian Leadership, you have the option of pursuing the Bachelor of Arts degree in Practical Christian Training.

IV. FACILITIES, EQUIPMENT, AND OPPORTUNITIES

Completely equipped computer laboratories are available for your use. There are many academic computer labs conveniently located all over campus. They consist of various types of PCs, Apple PowerMacs, and laser printers and are all interconnected via a Novell computer network.

As a member of the ministerial class, you will have the opportunity to attend seminars on missions and current religious trends.

In the Ministry Resource Center you will find a Christian periodical and tape library, duplicating equipment, complete topical files, and a wide variety of audiovisual materials and equipment. This laboratory is maintained for your class and extension use.

Mission Prayer Band is a campus organization designed to stimulate missionary zeal and vision. Students gather four times weekly to systematically pray for the needs of the missionary cause around the world, and to hear speakers challenge them on mission themes. Four times per year there is a special Missions Spotlight program when a certain field and its needs are specifically in focus.

The annual spring Bible Conference is one of the outstanding features of the University and Academy year. Your regular academic work will be suspended for the Conference, during which you will hear messages from outstanding Bible teachers, pastors, and evangelists.

Chapel is a central feature of Bob Jones University. This 35-minute service is held every morning, Monday through Thursday. These services are a source of great inspiration to students. Four days a week the Chapel message is brought by the President or by selected speakers. Each Friday the Chapel period is devoted to the meetings of various literary societies.

Davis Field House, with over 87,000 square feet and seating for 3,000 people, contains 4 full-sized courts; auxiliary courts; indoor and outdoor tracks; swimming pool; café; and a fitness center with fully-equipped exercise room, aerobic room, sauna, and whirlpool.

The Mack Library, with 90,000 square feet of floor space and seating for over 1,300 students, gives you access to 294,000 volumes, 1,100 current periodical subscriptions, and more than 17,000 music, speech, and language recordings. Mack Library offers access to over 65 electronic databases on the library web site. An interlibrary loan program is available through OCLC, a national database, for books not held in our library. Other prominent features include the Jerusalem Chamber, a replica of the room in Westminster Abbey in London in which work was done on the 1611 King James Bible, and the University Archives Room which displays materials about the Founder and history of the University.

If you are planning to live on campus, you will be glad to know that all of our residence halls are air-conditioned, have wall-to-wall carpeting, and have a phone in each room. You will be able to make long-distance calls directly from your room and have them automatically placed on your school bill. Computer network connectivity is available in all residence halls, as well.

All of our classrooms are air-conditioned. The Dining Common serves 8,500 delicious meals a day, and the Snack Shop and Bookstore in the Student Center carry just about anything you'll need.

You will find the finest Christian young people in the country are your fellow students, and without trying too hard, you may end up making a life-long friend!

V. ABOUT THE FACULTY

Our faculty members have had experience in a variety of Christian service fields, including planting and pastoring churches, serving on the mission field, directing Bible clubs, Christian camps, and summer mission teams. Several faculty members have had experience pastoring and serving in local churches and on the boards of other Christian organizations.

VI. CAREER OPPORTUNITIES AND PLACEMENT

While graduates of this program work in various capacities for churches, Christian schools, and other ministries, many of the graduates secure jobs in secular employment. These graduates are able to support their church financially, and they are also able to use their training to provide leadership as Sunday school teachers, Awana leaders, youth group sponsors, and other important support roles for the local church.

VII. BJU: AN AFFORDABLE EDUCATION

Enclosed is an expense sheet detailing the cost of attending Bob Jones University. When you compare our charges to those of other private colleges, we think you will be pleasantly surprised. We believe we offer a student more value for his dollar than anyone else in America. And to help you see how affordable "the Opportunity Place" can be for you, we have enclosed a financial aid brochure that you can use to evaluate your own situation. Your Admissions Counselor or the Director of Student Financial Aid would be happy to discuss this with you if you have any questions.

HOW TO TAKE THE NEXT STEP . . .

If you can see yourself in the career described in the profile, then a great opportunity awaits you at Bob Jones University. It is the opportunity for the premier Christian college experience in all the world. It is the opportunity for learning, for fun, and for developing new friendships. It is the opportunity to prepare for a lifetime of service for the Lord . . .

The Opportunity Place . . . God's Special Place for You.
