

MAJOR CHOSEN: BUSINESS

(Residential Construction Management Concentration)

I. A BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE MAJOR

Do you enjoy building things? Do you want to work for or own your own residential construction business? The Business (Residential Construction Management Concentration) major is a four-year bachelor degree program that prepares you for employment in the construction industry. This degree builds on the Residential Construction Management associate degree with the essential business courses to manage people, material, equipment, and budgets in this fast growing field.

II. COURSE HIGHLIGHTS

As you pursue your bachelor degree you will enjoy the following business courses:

The Basic Accounting course introduces you to the language of business. Human Resource Management provides a Biblical framework in the management of people. Project Management and Introduction to Logistics Management introduce you to putting a project together and provide the tools to execute the project. Principles of Microeconomics and Macroeconomics give you the fundamental knowledge of our economic system.

These skills are further enhanced with courses in management, finance, and Bible that prepare you as a construction professional with a Christian worldview.

III. A TYPICAL YEARLY COURSE SEQUENCE

This is a suggested program of study for you. Other refinements to your program can be made when you consult your faculty advisor at the time of your enrollment.

You will notice that some courses are listed as electives. These electives give you the opportunity to tailor your program by selecting courses you would like to take for your own personal enjoyment.

IV. FACILITIES, EQUIPMENT, AND OPPORTUNITIES

A well-equipped carpentry shop is available not only for class work, but also for personal projects. The equipment in this shop includes a 26-inch disk/spindle sander, a stroke sander, a double-spindle shaper, a single-spindle shaper, a chisel mortiser, an 18-inch planer, a pair of wood lathes, table saws, jointers, a bandsaw, a resaw bandsaw, an overarm router, and many power hand tools. All the power tools are also furnished for the residential building course as well as the residential mechanical trades course. The transportation to and from the building sites is also provided.

As a part of the University Business Association, a campus organization comprised of students in the various business majors, you will have an opportunity to become acquainted with successful Christian business people who speak at the regular meetings. The emphasis of UBA is to help prepare you to be an effective testimony for Christ in the business world. In addition, this organization operates an Investment Club that manages a portfolio of real stocks.

The Mack Library, with 90,000 square feet of floor space and seating for over 1,300 students, gives you access to 294,000 volumes, 1,100 current periodical subscriptions, and more than 17,000 music, speech, and language recordings. Mack Library offers access to over 65 electronic databases on the library web site. An interlibrary loan program is available through OCLC, a national database, for books not held in our library. Other prominent features include the Jerusalem Chamber, a replica of the room in Westminster Abbey in London in which work was done on the 1611 King James Bible, and the University Archives Room which displays materials about the Founder and history of the University.

Chapel is a central feature of Bob Jones University. This 35-minute service is held every morning, Monday through Thursday. These services are a source of great inspiration to students. Four days a week the Chapel message is brought by the President or by selected speakers. Each Friday the Chapel period is devoted to the meetings of various literary societies.

The annual spring Bible Conference is one of the outstanding features of the University and Academy year. Your regular academic work will be suspended for the Conference, during which you will hear messages from outstanding Bible teachers, pastors, and evangelists.

Davis Field House, with over 87,000 square feet and seating for 3,000 people, contains 4 full-sized courts; auxiliary courts; indoor and outdoor tracks; swimming pool; café; and a fitness center with fully-equipped exercise room, aerobic room, sauna, and whirlpool.

If you are planning to live on campus, you will be glad to know that all of our residence halls are air-conditioned, have wall-to-wall carpeting, and have a phone in each room. You will be able to make long-distance calls directly from your room and have them automatically placed on your school bill. Computer network connectivity is available in all residence halls, as well.

All of our classrooms are air-conditioned, and there are awnings over the sidewalks to keep you dry when it is raining. The Dining Common serves 8,500 delicious meals a day, and the Snack Shop and Bookstore in the Student Center carry just about anything you'll need.

You will find the finest Christian young people in the country are your fellow students, and without trying too hard, you may end up making a life-long friend!

V. ABOUT THE FACULTY

You will receive a quality biblical based education from our nineteen business faculty members. Their breadth and depth of teaching and professional work experience prepares you to be a Christian business person in your chosen field. The faculty has over 230 years of teaching experience and hold graduate degrees from a wide variety of universities including: Virginia Tech, Duke University, Clemson University, Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, Ball State University, University of Georgia, University of Houston, University of Toledo, Arizona State University, and Bob Jones University. Professionally, they have also accumulated over 300 years of business experience in all sectors of business which include accounting, manufacturing, administrative services, information technology, government, insurance, and financial services.

Some business faculty members are entrepreneurs and others have been in leadership positions from entry-level to the executive boardroom. Their professional certifications include CPA (Certified Public Accountant), CFP (Certified Financial Planner), CLU (Chartered Life Underwriter), CGFM (Certified Government Financial Manager) and PMP (Project Manager Professional). Many have been recognized in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Who's Who in America, Who's Who in the Midwest, Who's Who in Business, or Business Week's "Up and Comers." As well, many have held offices in professional organizations and have been recognized for their community service.

More importantly, the business faculty's leadership in local church ministries as deacons, elders, trustees, Sunday School teachers, and youth sponsors provides a role model for service and ministry.

VI. CAREER OPPORTUNITIES AND PLACEMENT

The Business (Residential Construction Management Concentration) major gives students hands-on experience in the construction field. A focus on business management prepares graduates for a variety of positions as business owners and supervisors in the residential construction industry. Christian young people have opportunity for a technically challenging and personally rewarding ministry as small business owners both at home and in ministry positions in churches or on mission fields. Each year over 60 businesses and 150 Christian schools, mission boards, and other Christian organizations recruit our graduates.

VII. BJU: AN AFFORDABLE EDUCATION

Enclosed is an expense sheet detailing the cost of attending Bob Jones University. When you compare our charges to those of other private colleges, we think you will be pleasantly surprised. We believe we offer a student more value for his dollar than anyone else in America. And to help you see how affordable "the Opportunity Place" can be for you, we have enclosed a financial aid brochure that you can use to evaluate your own situation. Your Admissions Counselor or the Director of Student Financial Aid would be happy to discuss this with you if you have any questions.

HOW TO TAKE THE NEXT STEP . . .

If you can see yourself in the career described in the profile, then a great opportunity awaits you at Bob Jones University. It is the opportunity for the premier Christian college experience in all the world. It is the opportunity for learning, for fun, and for developing new friendships. It is the opportunity to prepare for a lifetime of service for the Lord . . .

The Opportunity Place . . . God's Special Place for You.
