DO YOU NEED ADMINISTRATIVE TRAINING

but do not have the money to obtain it?

Here is help!

Bob Jones University is concerned about the need for qualified, well-educated administrators in Christian schools around the country. To help meet this need, BJU is instituting three levels of financial assistance for educators desiring graduate training in administration.

This financial assistance is applicable toward a master's degree in educational leadership.

Level 1

The administrator of any Christian school that has qualified for the Partnership Program which provides financial assistance to undergraduate students at Bob Jones University on the basis of its purchases from BJU Press may take up to 30 semester hours of graduate training in educational leadership without charge. The tuition will be paid by Bob Jones University Press.

Level 2

The administrator of a Christian school that does not qualify for the Partnership Program may take up to 30 semester hours of graduate training in educational leadership, and 75 percent of the tuition will be paid by Bob Jones University Press.

Any currently employed teacher in a Christian school who desires to train for a position as a Christian school administrator may take up to 30 semester hours of graduate training in administration applicable toward a master's degree in educational leadership, and 50 percent of the tuition will be paid by Bob Jones University Press.

For more information about any of these options, contact the Financial Aid office at (864) 242-5100, ext. 3040. To apply for graduate training in educational leadership, please contact the Admission office at (800) 252-6363.
