Experience BJU Opportunity Days

Career preparation, relationship building, spiritual growth—your college experience will set the course for the rest of your life. Websites and brochures can help you make the crucial decision of which college to attend, but there's nothing like seeing a place with your own eyes!

So come be our guest at BJU for a few days. We'll put you up in the residence halls, provide your meals, let you visit classes and arrange for you to meet with faculty members. You can talk to current students and check out BJU's campus. We'll even mix in some fun times with the other high schoolers here for Opportunity Days.

Schedule

Wednesday

- 6–9 p.m. Check-in (Welcome Center)
- 10:30 p.m. Prayer Group (join students in your residence hall for a time of prayer and spiritual encouragement)

Thursday

- 8–11 a.m. Visit classes/meet with faculty (prearranged meetings only)
- 9 a.m. Student-led campus tour (meet at the Welcome Center)
- 11 a.m. Chapel
- 1–5 p.m. Visit classes/meet with faculty (prearranged meetings only)
- 3–4:10 p.m. Catch a Vision for Success!
Choose from back-to-back, half-hour sessions to get an idea of how to begin your college journey and what that journey will involve.

Visiting Students Reservations

- Opportunity Days is for students in the ninth through twelfth grades.
- Visiting students staying in the residence halls for the first time receive free lodging (up to two consecutive nights, includes meals). Cost for those who have stayed in the residence halls before is $15 per night (includes meals), payable at check-in.
- We will do our best to fulfill special room requests if noted on the reservation form.

Sponsors

- Sponsors for groups will be our guests for residence hall accommodations and meals based on the number of visiting students (other than relatives) in the group:

Visiting Students	Sponsors
2–10	2 adults
11–20	4 adults
21–30	6 adults

- Please request an Opportunity Days group reservation form.
- We regret that we are unable to accommodate children or additional adults, even on a paying basis.

Check-in

Check-in is on Wednesday from 6 to 9 p.m. in the Welcome Center located in the Student Center. Those arriving on Thursday morning should also check in at the Welcome Center.
