EXTENSION EXPLANATION

Every Wednesday Bob Jones Junior High students have the opportunity to participate in an extension ministry at Pendleton Manor, a retirement center in Greenville. We leave the school by 3:10 and return at 4:10. After a short service of hymns, special music, and a challenge, we talk individually with the residents. Junior High teachers supervise the students on the extension.

My child has my permission to go on Extension this year. YES NO

SPORTS PROGRAM EXPLANATION

Any Bob Jones Junior High student not under disciplinary restriction is eligible to participate in the sports program. Students who have been active in sports for years will be challenged to gain new skills. Students new to sports will learn the value of teamwork and learn some new athletic skills. We will begin the year playing soccer. The winter sport will be basketball, and the spring sport will be volleyball.

My child has my permission to participate in the Sports Program. YES NO

EXCURSION EXPLANATION

The excursion is an annual tradition at Bob Jones Junior High. As a reward for having completed the first grading period, we go to Northside Park to play “Capture the flag” and “Tug of War”. The seventh and eighth grade students go on separate days and there are be separate games for girls and boys.

My child has my permission to participate at the Excursion. YES NO

SEVENTH GRADE WILDS TRIP EXPLANATION

Each year the seventh grade students spend a day at The WILDS Christian Camp in Rosman, NC. Students participate in a variety of fun activities including the “Super Slide”, “Giant Swing”, hiking and various other games.

My child has my permission to participate at the WILDS trip. YES NO

I understand that the lake activity (The Blob) is an activity for swimmers. My signature here gives my child my permission to participate in the lake activity.
