A devotional from Dr. Bob Sr.'s Do Right Daily.

God said, "Flee youthful lusts." But God did not tell you to run from the devil.

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

James 4:7

A man said to me, "The devil has not bothered me for over ten long years."

I said, "Brother, I wouldn't tell that. A man is mighty sorry when the devil doesn't want him."

The devil hounded the steps of Jesus Christ for all the years of His earthly life, and you are going to have to face all hell when you start on the road to heaven. But you do not have to fight alone. The One who was always victorious can give you victory. Everyone ever born into this world was challenged by the devil, and he knocked out everyone who went into the ring with him. He knocked out Abraham. He knocked out Moses. He knocked out Lot and all the rest of them.

One day a little baby was born in Bethlehem. The devil was afraid that a champion had been born, and he tried to kill Him when He was a baby. But that baby grew up and one day challenged the devil. The Son of God went into the ring during those days in the wilderness and knocked him out three times. You do not have to fight the devil alone.

It is never right to do wrong in order to get a chance to do right.

If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

2 John 10–11

I have always been ethical in my work. I will not accept an invitation to preach in a man's church unless I can recommend that the converts under my ministry join his church, and I will not preach under a group of churches unless I can recommend converts to those churches. It is not ethical to hold a meeting under a group of churches and not send the convert cards to those who invited you if cards are signed for those churches.

Remember, when you work under a modernistic ecclesiastical setup, you are not only a party to making it hard for your orthodox brethren, but you are going against the clear-cut statement of Scripture. You are also by your influence and position bidding Godspeed to false preachers of a false gospel, and you are partaker of the evil deeds of such men.
