

Do Right!

A devotional from Dr. Bob Sr.'s Do Right Daily.

The reason some folks do not walk with Jesus Christ is that they would rather travel with the crowd.

They loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

John 12:43

One day a woman said to me, "I would like to be a Christian, but if I were to come down the aisle of this church and take a stand and accept Jesus Christ, I would have to give up my crowd."

I said, "No, you wouldn't."

"Oh," she said, "I would!"

I said, "No, you would not. If you were to walk down this aisle and take Jesus Christ as your Savior and come out on His side without any apology, that godless, good-for-nothing, frivolous gang would give you up and save you the trouble."

You do not have to give the world up; the world drops you when you step on Jesus' side. But I would rather be with Him Who is not so fickle. I would rather walk alone with Him than to travel with the crowd to hell.

Do Right!

A devotional from Dr. Bob Sr.'s Do Right Daily.

Clean up that room where God put you.

I go to prepare a place for you.

John 14:2

When you get into a room, clean up that room where God put you. Don't ask any questions. Just fix the room. When you get that room all fixed, God will open the door and put you into another one. When you get in that room, fix it all up—dust it, clean it, and straighten it up. Don't leave any of it undone. When you get that job done, God may move you into a bigger room. This time you may be a little proud and stuck up—you have a big room to work in. If you get stuck up, God may put you in a little attic. If He does, go on and get in there; that is where you belong.

Day after day during my life, I have been going from one room to another. Some day, if the Lord tarries, I am going to be in a room somewhere. I am going to try to be busy, doing the job. After a while it will get a little dark. Something is the matter with the electricity, or maybe my eyes are not good. Things are not exactly right. Oh, the lights are going out. But yonder is a door. No, it is not a door—it is not like any other door. It is a gate—of pearl. It is opening, it is opening! And I am going to move into a room He fixed for me.

Heaven must be a wonderful place. If God can turn a sunbeam into a brush and paint a rose in one springtime, what will heaven be? Jesus has been there over two thousand years doing interior decorating. My room is all ready there. All He has been doing is touching up the inside of it.